

Allowing medical marijuana on campus

(revise first 4 paragraphs)

Danielle Prazak

Medical marijuana in University Housing has a newly introduced resolution. This would urge the University to revise the student code, allowing the possession and use of non-smoking medical marijuana products on campus.

The current program in Illinois allows for eligible individuals to apply for a cannabis registry card. However, students have few options.