A former teacher at Peabody-Burns high school has been alleged of having sexual relations with two female students. Former Peabody-Burns teacher and coach Chris Young, age 45, is facing several felony charges.

According to the affidavit, Burke was made aware of a sexual relationship between Young and a student at the school on Jan. 2, 2018. An investigation ensued, leading to the arrest of Young.

Since this was reported to the Peabody Police Department, Bruce F. Burke notified the Peabody-Burns high school for evidence. Peabody-Burns high school is in full cooperation with the investigation.

Officials have been told by some members of the Peabody-Burns high school administrators that they have observed some unacceptable behaviors by Chris Young. One, multiple times has Chris Young's door been locked in the mornings prior to school starting with one of the female students. It has also been reported that student X and Chris Young would be seen going to an alcove in the hallway during school hours.

Student X had been in a formal relationship with Chris Young. When investigator Burke got a hold of Young's phone, multiple images were found with Student X and Chris naked. Photos have also been reportedly found of just body parts belonging to either student x or Chris Young.

According to the affidavit, student x has spent the night at Chris Young's house, has had photos with her stating that she is having sexual intercourse with her history teacher, and is cheating on her boyfriend.

Reports also state that student x was in some way an acquaintance of the second student. Further information will be released of the case.
