“Black Panthers “ are stone-faced black men in berets and black leather coats and carrying rifles to the youth now.

Panthers remain a point of struggle for black equality in the USA. Failure was set upon the party because they failed to live up to its deals during its activism.

The Black community was led to equity and strength.

Huey Newton and Bobby seale formed the party in Oakland in 1966. Bobby stated that “We took no crap, so to speak, from what we used to say is the racist pig power structure”.

Police violence in black communities was monitored and shares the same issues of Black Lives Matter and “other” organizations. “Violence against blacks recalls civil-rights era”

The violence and disarray of the Panthers and projects, are the subject of a new documentary on PBS starting Feb.16
