Peabody teacher faces TWO sex charges against his students

High school teacher/coach accused of having sexual relationships with two of his own students. Christopher Young (Chris) was accused of spending the night at his trailer, handing a promise ring, and committing an inappropriate act with one of the girls during school hours.

Both girls were also in a relationship within themselves, however, one left the other due to her desire to focus on her relationship with Chris.

The girl currently lives in a farmhouse with her half-brother in rural Marion County. The girl did not live with her father or mother. Reports say she had no type of relationship with her mother.

The father of the girl stated his opinion regarding the case. He believes Chris needs to lose his job, marriage, and maybe do some jail time, but not 20 years in prison. He rather for investigations to stay away from his daughter. The father was aware that his daughter was spending nights with Chris, but was unaware of the sexual activities that were occurring. On the other hand, Chris's family was devastated to find out about his secret relationship.

A search warrant was conducted to go through the girl's phones to go into further depth with their investigation. They found nudes of all who were involved in the crime, as well as sexual messages being sent to one another. Court dates are being placed for Chris to attend. Further investigations are still being processed at the time.
