

Kati: Hopefully, it picks it up, I just don't want it in your face the whole time.

Julia: I think it will, I used to record my teachers

Kati: Okay umm yeah, anyways, do you have any more classes today?

Julia: Umm Yeah I have a 2pm

Kati: Okay so are you not going to the derby days thing?

Julia: No, i really want to

Kati: All of my classes, for the most part are like in the way of derby days-

Julia: Oh, really?

Kati: Well tomorrow I have a class from 2-5 and then there's like that derby days 21's thing from 12-6-

Julia: I know that would be so much fun to go to, but I have two exams tomorrow so I haven't even been thinking about Derby Days

Kati: Oh, really? Dang for what classes?

Julia: uhm, speech and hearing science and kinesiology. And I have my chem one tonight

Kati: Oh my god, good luck! Someone else was telling me that like they have a lot of exams this week, cause I think it's like midterms or something

Julia: yeah do you have any midterms?

Kati: Nope, not any yet, so that's nice but I still have so much to do like wow I am such a procrastinator

Julia: Oh my god me too

Kati: yeah, wait so where are you from in California?

Julia: San Francisco, well really Pleasanton California, but its like a 45 minute drive from San Francisco

Kati: gotcha, is that like by the bay area?

Julia: yes, that like is the bay area haha

Kati: somebody else i met is actually from the bay area I think the first person I was supposed to interview is from there too

Julia: Really?! Yeah, I call it the bay area but a lot of people here dont know what the bay area is, so I just like say San Francisco

Kati: yeah so what was like the typical weather like for the winter seasons, like december, january, february?

Julia: Oh my gosh, so like during the school days at like 8 am It'd maybe be like 30-40 degrees-

Kati: ok

Julia: And then by the end of the day like 60's

Kati: really, oh my gosh

Julia: yeah like 50's, 60's. It wasn't bad at all

Kati: yeah that's so nice

Julia: yeah so like I never wore winter stuff, like winter clothes, like i would wear like a sweatshirt and converse and like leggings

Kati: oh okay, that's so easy like you don't even have to worry about it-

Julia: haha, i know, i mean someday I would wear like one of those like you know one of those fuzzy north faces

Kati: oh yeah yeah yeah

Kati: haha um yeah so did you like, not do a ton of shopping, but had to get a lot of stuff to like come here

Julia: Oh, I haven't even started

Kati: oh dang really, well are you going home for thanksgiving?

Julia: yeah

Kati: that'll be nice then you can just get everything back home

Julia: yeah just cause there's like skiing places like around where I live, like people buy snow stuff, so like when I go back im gonna get some snow clothes haha

Kati: yeah that's so smart thought cause it would be annoying if you lugged everything here already

Julia: yeah and it's hard to get places here so it would be tough to go shopping for it

Kati: yeah it sucks, wait so like have you experienced snow before, like gone skiing and just like cold weather before though?

Julia: yeah, yeah, so like 3 hours away from Pleasonton is Tahoe, like lake Tahoe and in the summer people go there to boat, but in the winter people go there to swim, haha i mean skii or snowboard, and like I'll go there a lot and I've gone to Canada cause I have family there. But i've never lived in it like I've only been there like in spurts of like three days at a time.

Kati: yeah yeah okay that makes sense. Are you nervous about it or like not know what to expect about it?

Julia: Oh no, not at all haha

Kati: haha so like was that like a deciding factor on if you wanted to come here or not, like the weather at all?

Julia: you know, you know it was part of like some of the reason why I didn't want to come, but then i just like overlooked it

Kati: yeah I was gonna say it must be hard leaving like, I have friends who went to california for school and it would be like so weird like you're not gonna have like a winter and we're so used to that.

Julia: mhm, yeah but i think theyre gonna like it like not having it for the first time in their life ya know?

Kati: yeah, have you like heard anything about the winters like how they are and like any rumors or not rumors but haha you know

Julia: oh my gosh, all the time haha yeah, well like everyone just says "do you have snow gear are you ready for the winter?" or even back home in California, a lot of people like I've met a few people from chicago who moved out there and they told me "I have a feeling you're gonna come back." You're gonna miss california weather haha

Kati: really? Wow oh my gosh, no it's really not that bad, like when it gets super super cold that's when it sucks

Julia: i can see that

Kati: but i can see how you would miss the nice weather like all the time

Julia: haha yeah

Kati: uhm well haha have you been given any advice?

Julia: uhm, no not really I mean i've just been told that it's nice to have four seasons here, like in some places in california, well where i live you can kinda decide which seasons you want cause like you can drive three hours for snow, drive two hours beach,

Kati: that's so weird

Julia: yeah i know it is weird, like some days in like March, people will go to the beach and on the same day people will go to the snow, like it's really crazy

Kati: wow that is so cool thought

Julia: but like thats like a 4 to 5 hour difference and i'm like right in the middle of it, but in like san diego, like southern california like its just one, like two seasons all year long. But people here say it's like nice to have a white christmas

Kati: yeah that is true that's like something I always look forward to

Julia: yeah and it's like a real winter

Kati: oh for sure, but yeah thank you so much again for talking with me today.

Julia: yeah no problem, no that was so quick
