Interview with Abby Garske
Interviewed by Olivia Breaux

Olivia: What Sorority chapter are you a part of?

Abby: I'm a Delta Gamma

O: What business fraternity are you a part of?

A: I am a Phi Gamma Nu

O: How do you find time for both?

A: You know what, I'm not going to lie to you, it's really hard right now because when you join a business fraternity, you're an actual pledge. So you have a ton of requirements that you have to fulfill. So I think that right now, during the day more I'm focusing on getting my points in for PGN (Phi Gamma Nu) and stuff, but I do try to make time to go out with my sorority sisters at night, and do all the events with them when I have time.

O: Did certain people impact your sorority house decision?

A: There was one older girl from my High School who is in my sorority, and I really like her, and I feel we are very similar people. [W]hen I got to talk to her about DG (Delta Gamma), and the way she talked about it, it really made me want to be a DG too.

O: What about in your business frat?

A: I didn't really know that much about business frat's, I just new that they were really useful, and pretty impactful, so I just picked one, I picked Phi Gamma Nu, I went to the information night, and I loved the information night and everything they like stood for. So I just rushed that one, and ya here we are.

O: Are there other people that are in your chapter, that are in your business frat?

A: There's one girl, who is my age who is a DG and also a PGN so we relate to each other a lot I feel like. And then there's like 4 or 5 older girls who are DG's that are also in PGN, but I don't really know them as well

O: What are some things you do in your business frat?

A: So there's 3 pillars that PGN kinda focuses itself around: there's professionalism, philanthropy, and socials. So for professionalism events we have a bunch of different corporate relations events with different companies and stuff, so we go talk to them about what they do, what they stand for, different opportunities for us, internships and stuff. And then, we also have social stuff, so like I went camping with mine, this past weekend, and we have like parties often, and social events. And then for philanthropic, we have a bunch of philanthropic events, so I went and like picked up trash on the highway this week, or like you can go help out at the homeless shelter, like go to like an elementary school and talk to kids.

O: How many people are in your business fraternity?

A: about 225

O: Sorority?

A: I don't really know, about 300?
